The Archdiocese GM Monthly Magazine "Northern Light"

Northern Light re-subscription campaign: After much positive feedback and support, the archdiocese is preparing to continue its monthly magazine Northern Light for a second year.

You'll find many stories, photospreads and other features within. It is a great way to support the Church and stay in-the-know with Catholic communities across northwestern Alberta.

We encourage you to purchase a subscription to Northern Light either online or by using one of the subscription cards here at the church. And if you are already a subscriber to this magazine, we encourage you to re-subscribe for a second year. This unique resource is cherished by its readers – don't miss out!

A big thank you to the generous donors for the roof project as well as to the Rheaume Family Foundation for their matching donation of $5000.00! We sincerely appreciate your generosity.

National Synthesis for Canada report released by CCCB

The CCCB has submitted its National Synod Synthesis to the Holy See. Copies of the report are located at the back of the church.

Press release: The first phase of the “Synod on Synodality,” listening at the diocesan level, has concluded. Synthesis Reports were prepared by each of Canada’s four Regional Episcopal Assemblies – Western, Ontario, Quebec and Atlantic regions. These four regional reports were then received by the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB) and used to draft a national synthesis, which has been submitted to the General Secretariat of the Synod of the Holy See on 15 August 2022. The national synthesis document is divided into 11 sections, collectively reflecting on the major themes of this process and the voices heard.

This report is the culmination of a sincere listening exercise that occurred in every diocese across the country. What was most present in the regional reports has been included in the national synthesis, providing a thorough and thoughtful account of the exchanges which took place during the initial phase of the synodal process.

“Catholics in Canada want their Church to be relevant and engaged in our world’s ongoing transformation. They recognize an urgent need for the Church to undergo a profound missionary renewal” said the Most Rev. Raymond Poisson, President of the CCCB, and member of the Canadian National Synthesis Writing Team.

“I found great encouragement and inspiration in the level of engagement I witnessed in this process. It showed that God remains at the centre of the lives of many Canadians, and that many families feel a positive connection with the impact Catholic parishes are having in their communities” added the Most Rev. Richard Gagnon, former President of the CCCB, and also a member of the Canadian National Synthesis Writing Team.

The next phase of the synodal process will involve the development of a “Document for the Continental Phase” by the General Secretariat of the Synod in Rome. Once complete, this document will serve as the source document for reflection during the continental phase. For this purpose, the CCCB will be working closely with the USCCB. More information on the continental phase for North America will be released in the coming months. The synodal process will conclude with the Synod of Bishops in Rome in the fall of 2023
